

Chilean Given Post At Training Center

Aguilera Assistant Chief Of Inter-American Union

Dean Henry Grattan Doyle, director of the Washington Inter-American Training Center, has appointed Francisco Aguilera of the Pan-American Union to be assistant director of the center, it was announced today.

Senor Aguilera, who previously had served as supervisor of the Spanish classes conducted under auspices of the center, will divide his time between his duties at the center, with headquarters in the Library of Congress Annex, and the Pan-American Union, where he is in the division of intellectual co-operation. An educator of distinction both in Chile and the United States, he is a graduate of the University of Indiana and has served as an instructor in Spanish at Yale University.

The Inter-American Training Center, sponsored by the co-ordinator of inter-American affairs and administered by the American Council of Learned Societies, has grown in eight months from 165 students to an enrollment of 1,342, including Army and Navy officers. Classes are held throughout the city in several agencies in about 30 classrooms. Registration is available only to Government personnel engaged in activities connected with Latin American matters.

Henry E. Dixey, 84, Actor Of Gay Nineties, Dies

By the Associated Press.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 25.—Henry E. Dixey, 84, a prominent New York actor in the 90s, died in Atlantic City Hospital today of injuries received Sunday night when he was struck by a bus.

Mr. Dixey, living here for the last 10 years, started his stage career at the age of 10 in a melodrama, "Under Gas Lights."

He later appeared in many outstanding plays and operettas, including "Beck Sharpe," "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "Bought and Paid For."

7 Cab Drivers Face Suspension For Carrying Soldiers to Camps

Seven Washington taxicab operators face suspension of their gasoline ration books and priorities on tires after being taken into custody by Virginia State police and OPA inspectors.

They will have hearings as a result of a campaign launched by Lt. Joseph D. Harrington a month ago when he warned Virginia and North Carolina cab drivers to stay out of Washington. If they were out of the 10-mile limit set by the Office of Defense Transportation, Lt. Harrington and plain clothesmen found soldiers were being carried to Washington from Fort Bragg, N. C., and Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., and Quantico, Va. He warned the drivers that they would be arrested if they again came to Washington from the distant points.

When the matter was disclosed to OPA officials, it was revealed that some of the Washington cab owners had been carrying the soldiers back to the distant points. The OPA and Virginia State police, set the trap last week.

Two of the drivers were stopped in Richmond, two were stopped on their way to Norfolk, two south of Quantico and the seventh in Fredericksburg.

According to Lt. Harrington, ODT is arranging for hearings on the seven cases.

A conference between the OPA, ODT, police officials and a representative of the District Attorney's office is being arranged to determine if the hackers licenses can be suspended.

Mystery Bomb Explosion Stirs Town's Residents

By the Associated Press.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Prince Edward Island, Feb. 25.—A heavy bomb explosion outside Charlottetown jolted this city last night and caused minor damage, but there were no casualties.

While air force officials remained silent on the source of the bomb, an unofficial explanation was that it was jettisoned by a Royal Canadian Air Force plane in difficulties.

Bursting in a field about a mile from Charlottetown, the bomb shattered windows and dislodged plaster in homes 100 yards away and in other neighboring buildings. The blast was heard for miles, and Charlottetown residents deluged authorities with calls for information.
